End of Low Flying In R. C. Region Promised at Meet

D. F. Peterson, senior aeronautical inspector for the Civil Aeronautics Authority, last night acted promptly to eliminate complaints caused by low-flying civilian airplanes in the Redwood City area.

After hearing two dozen protests from approximately 100 persons assembled in the supervisors' chambers of the courthouse, Peterson issued these orders:

1. Civilian planes will maintain a minimum altitude of 1000 feet over congested areas.

2. Pilots will observe a minimum altitude of 500 feet over open areas.

3. The practice of simulated crash landings will be eliminated.

Representatives of five Peninsula airports, instructors and students, readily admitted that the residents of the Woodside Rd. area had a legitimate complaint, but pointed out that the 380-acre tract over which they had been giving lowel-level flying instruction was the only suitable area available to them.

Spokesmen for the aviation group outlined the boundaries delineated by the army and navy for civilian pilot instruction and pleaded for a more suitable area for low level work. They declared that none of the flying is pleasure flying, all of it being devoted to instruction.

Peterson said he would lay the problem before the army.

Emphatic protests against low level flying in the Woodside aren were voiced by angry home owners, some of whom threatened to sell their homes and move. Mayor W. W. Hilton heard the discussion and mentioned the possibility of a city ordinance to protect Redwood City residents from any nuisance created by airplanes.

Dep. Sheriff Eugene Cerqui acted as chairman of the meeting. He announced that Sheriff James J. McGrath and the Redwood City Tribune had taken up the problems of home owners in the affected area after receiving numerous complaints.

"There should be no conflict between home ownership and the use of the air," he declared. "Our people are entitled to live in the peace and quiet of their homes, and the airplane owners are entitled to fly."

That the "peace and quiet" of Redwood City homes had been disturbed was immediately apparent.

Fred Fetterle, 2056 Roosevelt Ave., told Peterson that planes flew as low as 150 feet over his home to the distress of himself, recently out of the hospital, and of his wife, who is suffering from heart trouble.

J. Philip Carson of Woodside Hills said his whole district is "up in arms" because planes circling homes all day long Saturdays and Sundays created a "perfect nuisance."

John W. Thompson, 265 Santiago Ave., protested that planes dived at his home and sped over it at tree-top level.

Mrs. Roy H. Williams, San Carlos Ave., said her husband works nights and is unable to sleep in the daytime.

Mrs. Frank Pfandl and Mrs. Elizabeth Aldridge of Santa Clara Ave. voiced similar complaints.

Mrs. Mary Eastian complained that she has heart trouble and is unable to obtain needed rest, while her night-working husband is denied his daytime sleep.

Fred Carr of 1753 Woodside Rd. protested what he called the airplane "merry-go-round" over his home.

Mrs. I. J. Tiegen, 263 Cerrito Ave., reported that she was unable to rest in the afternoons because of the noise of airplanes. Eugene P. Schaeffer, 2312 Alameda de las Pulgas, said several planes had been giving his isolated home a "good time."

Mrs. H. S. Davidson, 1725 Woodside Rd., said she feared the planes were coming through the roof and that the noise made life unbearable in the area.

"They 'buzzed' my home for an hour," declared Mrs. Fred W. Zehm, 270 Santiago Ave., who carried her babe in arms to the meeting to voice her protest.

Peterson shut off the protests with the announcement that if the activity is creating too much disturbance, the area is not suitable for low-level flying instruction.

Harry White, Palo Alto Airport, argued for continued use of the area, pointing out that the aviation industry had performed a patriotic service in training pilots for the great air forces which defeated Germany.

Mrs. Irmagarde Richards, 1440 Kentfield Ave., said that if low level flying continued she would sell her property, originally purchased to enjoy the peace and quiet of the country. Fred Bowman, 179 Santiago Ave., and Mrs. Edna Southward, 219 Nevada St., injected additional complaints.

Fred Harvey of Palo Alto Airport explained that instructors used Woodside Rd. as a straight line over which to teach students to make S turns.

Edward Watson, San Mateo airport, said he had observed flight training in the area and has seen only normal maneuvers.

"The airplane is here to stay, and some of us are going to have to get used to airplanes," he warned. "I have seen no evidence of anyone getting out of line in flying."

Peterson announced that if the area is congested, fliers must seek another area for practice. John Robb, PG&E employe, advised Peterson that the State Railroad Commission had ruled that the area has more than 50 homes per mile of service wire and is considered a relatively congested area.

Final protest came from Mrs. Ralph Williams, whose home faces the San Carlos Airport.

Peterson adjourned the public meeting to confer with the managers of the five airports represented: White of Palo Alto, Watson of San Mateo, J. A. Norton of Belmont, Roy Patton of San Carlos, and Jack Siminick of Mountain View.

He outlined possible areas for low level flying activities, issued the ceiling orders for the Redwood City area and promised to present the problem to army authorities.

Second Lt. James R. C urran of Redwood City Transferred to Prison Camp in Japan

Second Lt. James R. Curran of Redwood City was transferred to a prison camp in Japan several months before American soldiers liberated the Cabanatuan internees, the War Department confirmed today in a letter to the lieutenant's wife, the former Betty Evans.

Curran, who went overseas on June 6, 1941, eight days after the couple were married, had been a prisoner at the Cabanatuan Prison until last Fall when he was taken aboard a ship bound for the Jap mainland, his wife learned through a liberated pilot friend of her husband.

His whereabouts after that had been unknown by his wife and parents until the provost marshal informed her he was on Honshu Island.

Curran is believed to have participated in the famed Bataan death march after being taken captive.

His friend, with whom he received his pilot's wings and commission at Stockton Army Air Field in 1941, went overseas with the Redwood City flier and the two were together until Curran was sent to Japan. The returned pilot said Curran was in good health at the time he embarked for the Jap mainland.

Curran was stationed at Nichols Field as a pilot at the time of the Jap attack, and in a letter written six weeks before Bataan fell, said he had "lost everything" when his room received a direct hit from the Japs.

In his letter, he said, "It's pretty tough going, but we hope to get out of it soon. With a little help, we should be able to clean them out in a few weeks."

Since that time, his wife has received several postcards via prisoner-of-war mail, the last having arrived here last Summer.

M. P. Council Votes Boost In Business License Fees

MENLO PARK — The City Council heard a number of protests Monday passed an ordinance to increase the city's business license fees. The move is expected to net the city an added revenue of $1300 a year.

The plan to place a one cent tax on admission to theaters was removed from the ordinance after the council heard a number of protests against the taxation at last week's meeting.

A unanimous vote of the council passed the ordinance that officially made the Morey tract part of the City of Menlo Park.

Mayor Donald Fisher appointed Councilman Wallace Brown to obtain the views of the various veterans organizations regarding a temporary service honor roll for the city. A permanent memorial is planned after the war.

The council passed ordinances raising the salaries of the city judge and the city attorney. The judge receives a $15 a month increase and the city attorney was raised $50 per month.

E. R. Linebarger, Menlo Park taxi cab operator, appeared before the council to seek permission to use the building at the corner of Santa Cruz and Evelyn Aves. for a garage. His request was referred to the building inspector for a decision.

S. M. Merchant Marine School To Continue in Peacetime

The Merchant Marine Cadet School at San Mateo Point will not become a peacetime casualty, the War Shipping Administration has announced, but will be a part of a West Coast maritime training program, "the Annapolis of the Merchant Marine," according to Comdr. A. O. Brady, the school's commanding officer.

The San Mateo school, on a wooded eucalyptus point of land in the San Francisco Bay, will be one of three schools training the Merchant Marine Cadet Corps in a program of decentralized training, stated the WSA release, to be needed for training a large and prosperous postwar merchant fleet in the Pacific, which will require a merchant officer body larger and more proficient than ever before.

The Coyote Point School, called by architectural magazines one of the most beautiful in the country, will be part of a Bay Area training center, as the administration simultaneously announced that the Maritime Officers' School at Alameda would also remain a permanent base, and the California Maritime Academy at Vallejo has begun erection of permanent buildings at Carquinez Strait.

Basic training for merchant marine cadet-midshipmen will continue to be given at the San Mateo Point school. The second year of the cadet's training will be a tour at sea. The final two years the cadet will receive training and his commission at Merchant Marine Academy at King's Point, Long Island, N. Y.

Cadets are appointed through competitive examination. The course of training follows Annapolis in length and regulation.

Sequoia Times Rates Top Honor

Sequoia Times, Sequoia High School publication, received its second honor of the year when it was rated all-American, highest honor given in competition with more than a 1800 high school papers throughout the country, Scholastic Editor announced in its June issue.

This is the 14th time the Times has won the honor in 18 years of competition. Earlier this year the Times received first place rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press.

Competition was based on news coverage, style, makeup, and typographical excellence.

Ruth Dimick was editor of the paper when the award was given. Miss Louise Watkins is the faculty adviser.

Peterson Refuses To Sign Claims; Method Revamped

The refusal of County Executive Frederick Peterson to pass on 16 claims submitted by Secy. Frank Skillman of the planning commission Tuesday resulted in a supervisors' order revamping the methods of approving claims.

The board of supervisors, after reading a letter in which Peterson stated his refusal to approve a claim not signed by a department head, heard Supervisor Martin A. Poss defend Skillman's signing, and declared it was done to expedite the claims.

Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch questioned Asst. Dist. Atty. Daniel E. Sullivan as to the legality.

"Yes, but is it satisfactory to the executive?" replied Sullivan.

"Just because someone like the county excutive says it isn't right, de we have to kneel to him?" Hatch demanded.

Lack of dates on the claims which were submitted to the executive's office earlier this month brought up the question of the claim form's legality which Sullivan pointed out should include room for the authorization of a person other than the shipping clerk and department head which present claim forms specify.

Sullivan reminded the supervisors the charter empowered them to authorize other persons, and that the claim forms should make provisions for such. His recommendation was adopted by the board.

The board received a petition signed by more than 100 persons, requesting additional improvements be made at San Mateo Point.

In a pre-meeting caucus, the supervisors interviewed five applicants for the position of veteran's service officer, but made no appointment.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

Colonel Johnson, director of ODT, told a luncheon group in San Francisco last week "you ain't seen nuthin' yet" in the matter of tight transportation for civilians. He warned against planning a rail trip of any distance between now and the first of the year, because "the chances are 100 to 1 you won't be able to get the space." He said it took four years to amass our victorious army in Europe — "the greatest concentration of military might in the history of the world" — and that virtually this entire armed force must now be transferred to the Pacific war — "not in four years, but in 10 months!"

★ ★ ★

The tipoff from Colonel Johnson was, "unless it's a matter of life or death, don't try to get on a train between now and the first of the year." This may be tough on some vacationists who had planned to "go somewhere." But we can't feel sorry for anyone who has to spend his vacation in Redwood City. We don't know a better place in the world to achieve the results for which a vacation is intended. Redwood City has everything. If you don't want to take our word for it, ask Ned Butler of the Chamber of Commerce.

★ ★ ★

An added attraction for early July vacationists will be the big Fourth of July celebration which will be staged by the Peninsula Celebration Assn. in co-operation with all of the city's service clubs and merchants. Pres. Francis Britschgi says final plans for the big all-day affair at Hawes Park are shaping up nicely and that a record attendance is being anticipated. Commuters will be represented with a concession for soft drinks (believe it or not!).

★ ★ ★

The annual installation party at Villa Chartier last Tuesday night set a new attendance record for any commuters' affair. Limited to members only and their wives, 130 persons (approxmitely 65 couples) attended the dinner. Among newcomers or those who had not attended for some time were Messrs. and Mesdames Vince Malone, John Power, Norman Meyer, Harold Donnelly, Marty Formico, Jos. Harper, M. L. Brockway, R. E. Littrell, Larry Olness, Cecil Campbell, F. T. Kubes, Geo. Caprara, Fred Jaeger, E. M. Witt, Will Rogres, Walter Shugert, Geo. Raubinger and many others.

★ ★ ★

Two couples were celebrating wedding anniversaries, Mr. and Mrs. Witt, their 18th and Howard McGee and wife their 17th. . . . Larry Olness was receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter, June 6. . . . Two little boys now have a baby sister. . . . The only guests at the party were SP's Louis Chess and wife; Sig Arndt and Earl Wright, entertainers, and their wives . . . Jackie (WAC) Welch was unanimously elected the club's favorite pinup girl. . . . Members and their wives met, and vice versa, Joe (Allah) McClellan's charming new wife. . . . Everybody was glad to see Charley Hellwig among those present. . . . And Bill Mallon whose two sons have already won the Purple Heart.

★ ★ ★

Bill Curran deserved the Purple Heart for his performance as emcee. If you've ever been in a night club at the stroke of 12 New Year's Eve, you know what Bill was up against. Only the commuters didn't have horns. Everybody had fun in a genteel sort of way. The report that they were still picking commuters out of the bushes at 10 o'clock the next morning is a malicious falsehood. The record attendance at this annual dinner party was a fitting climax to the most successful administration of retiring president, Stan Perkins, and a glowing tribute and vote of confidence to the incoming administration headed by Clarence Brizee. A clear track and full speed ahead, Engineer Brizee!

★ ★ ★

Paul Allen announced that commuters to date have sold $154,000 worth of Seventh War Loan bonds, with $16,000 more pledged. (This result would seem to justify the noise made on the street two weeks ago!) But bond sales aren't enough. How about helping to maintain Redwood City's blood plasma quota? The need for plasma is more acute than ever. Mrs. Richard tum Suden, an ardent Red Cross worker, was telling us of a lady who received a letter from her son on Okinawa, and he said: "I'll be coming home now, Mother. I was wounded but my life was saved with blood plasma. The only thing that bothers me, I got the last jar available on Okinawa, and I can't help thinking about the next boy who needs it and can't get it." Suppose that "next boy" was your boy! Volunteer a pint of your blood NOW!

★ ★ ★

The sons beat the fathers, 14 to 11, in a softball game at Cub Pack 16 outing and weinie roast at Flood Park, Saturday, June 16. Wayne Burke's umpiring and Ray Cereghino's coaching were highlights of the game. . . . Roy Cloud and Joe Harper won the second flight in the Commuters contract bridge tournament, again beating the two Bills, Curran and Dobbyn. We don't know what the score was, but we're advised that if they were playing for money, on a one-fortieth basis, the two Bills would owe the "champs" $4.38. Curran is said to have gone set eight tricks on a four bid . . . and Dobbyn is understood to be advertising on the p.t. for a new partner. . . Marty Formico has been called East by the serious illness of his mother. . . . Frank Brady recently celebrated his 25th anniversary with Fireman's Fund.

To Attend FBI Course

Frank Marlowe, special investigator in Dist. Atty. Gilbert Ferrell's office, will attend a 14-weeks' course at the Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy in Washington, D. C., beginning July 27, it was announced Monday.

Walter Wisnom, Hillsborough police chief, will also attend the school.

SMJC Cannery Open Daily, Some Evenings

San Mateo Junior College canning center is in full summer operation and demands on the services of state-licensed canning operators and instructors probably will cause the center to open several evenings a week as well as every week day.

Housewives throughout the county can bring their produce and sugar to the center at the Junior College, where it is cooked, canned, in the cannery's own cans, and returned to the owner of the produce. Appointments can be made by calling San Mateo 4-3788.

Campership Fund Tops $100 Mark

At least eight boys could start packing their fishing tackle Wednesday as the Redwood City Lions Club and Tribune campership fund went over the $100 mark with an anonymous contribution of $13 to send a boy to camp for a week.

With $3 from individual contributions and $78 from the Lions Club, who are also going to provide transportation for the six boys they will send, the fund is still open to individual contributions of any amount, to enable youngsters of the Peninsula who need financial aid, to go for a week's vacation at San Mateo County camp sites in Pescadero and La Honda.

Boys can be sent for one week at $13, with $3 extra for transportation. Camp sessions started Sunday and will continue into August. Contributions may be for any amount and special boys may be designated whether or not they are members of the scouts or YMCA whose camps are available.

Reservations are going to be made soon for waiting boys and contributions should be made immediately by mailing or bringing contributions to the Tribune office, 30 California St.

Tire Blowout Injures Coastside Residents

Two Coastside residents were injured when their automobile blew a tire and crashed into an embankment on the Coast Hwy. near the Skyline Blvd. junction Sunday night, California Highway Patrolmen said today.

Robert J. Hartnett, 23, of Rockaway Beach, was driver of the automobile in which Donald Hartnett, 21, of the same address, was a passenger.

The two men were passing an automobile when a right rear tire blew out, they told patrolmen.

Campership Fund Gets $20 Check

At least one peninsula youngster was assured of a week's vacation at the YMCA or Boy Scout camps in the county, as the Redwood City Lions Club and Tribune's Campership fund received a $20 donation from M. A. Harris, president of the San Mateo County Civic League, Tuesday.

Contributions of any amount still are being sought as peninsula youngsters needing financial assistance to go for a camp vacation in Pescadero or La Honda vacation areas, look to the annual camperships for aid.

Vacation sessions are beginning now and reservations for youngsters must be made soon. Donors may specify particular boys who do not have to be members of the YMCA or Boy Scouts, or they may be contributed toward a general fund to be distributed by the two organizations for boys whom they will select.

Formerly the fund was open to the Girl Scouts, but their camp quota is filled this year.

Donations toward the $13 dollars needed for one boy for one week, or toward the $3 transportation costs, may be brought or mailed to the Tribune office, 30 California St.

Summertime Meals

"How cool you look!" is a compliment any hostess enjoys . . . and one that she will receive if she spends a minimum of time in the kitchen these days. It can be done without neglect to delicious meals. These suggestions point the way.

Jiffy Tomato Bouillon—To accompany cold meals. Dissolve 1 bouillon cube in each cup heated tomato juice.

Batter fried meats, fruits or vegetables—Make batter of prepared pancake flour, equal parts flour and liquid; use for dipping luncheon meats, vegetables and well-drained fruits. Fry in shallow fat.

Dessert Quickies—Use package puddings as quick filling for baked pastry or tart shells. Vary by adding chopped nut meats, grated chocolate or diced fruit.

Serve combined berries and thinly sliced oranges with toasted cake slices.

Recipe of the Week—

SUMMERTIME LUNCHEON SALAD

1 tbsp. unflavored gelatin
1 cup orange juice
½ cup hot water
2 tbsps. lemon juice
2 tbsps. sugar
1 cup sieved cottage cheese or
2 pkgs. cream cheese (3 oz.) and ¼ cup mayonnaise

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup of the orange juice in large bowl; add hot water; stir until dissolved. Add remaining orange juice, lemon juice, sugar, and cheese, mixing well. Pour into 1-qt. mold or 6 individual molds; chill until firm. To serve, unmold onto lettuce or spinach, and garnish with fresh fruits. Serves 6.

SAFEWAY

Put 'em up!

Can ALL you can at home!

From now on through the bountiful fruit and berry season is a good time to practice the thrifty old Yankee custom of putting up food for the winter months. Can all you can, at home.

Make the most of your sugar allotment and put up jams and jellies and preserves. Some berries can be put up in natural juices without sugar. Or you can stretch your sugar allowance by the use of honey for sweetening.

If you plan to put up vegetables, remember the only safe canning method is with a pressure cooker. Do not use the boiling water bath methods for any vegetables, except tomatoes. When you can, do it right. Buy fresh, firm fruits and berries. Cook them right and seal them tight!
